Supervisor Biane Announces Third Annual Fontana Health and Safety Fair

San Bernardino - On June 18, 2005 10:00am, in Jack Bulik Park, Supervisor Biane will host his third annual San Bernardino County Health and Safety in the City of Fontana. He is proud to have among his cosponsors the City of Fontana, Molina Health Care, American Medical Response, the Arrowhead Regional Medical Center, Stater Brothers, the California Highway Patrol, Burrtec Waste, 99.1FM KGGL, Radio Disney and many more local businesses and agencies.

At the fair, there will be free medical and dental screenings, bicycle helmet and car seat giveaways, free shows and activities for the entire family.

"Each year, the fair attracts more people and is more successful than the previous year. This promises to be the best Fontana Health and Safety fair yet," said Supervisor Biane. "I encourage all Fontana and San Bernardino County residents to participate in this major event."
